WHEREAS, Barbara McCandless has furnished an entire department of State government with "cast off" capital assets, thereby saving the taxpayers untold dollars; and,

WHEREAS, Barbara McCandless's dedication to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs has been continuous since July 19, 1973, under the supervision of four Department Secretaries; and,

WHEREAS, Barbara McCandless has served as a committee of one to prevent the secession of licensing boards from State government and the great State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, In her unswerving commitment to keep "her" boards and commissions on the path of righteousness, she has developed to perfection the art of getting the most information from the least resources; and,

WHEREAS, Barbara McCandless's valiant attempts at placing licensing board funds in the State Treasury have not gone unnoticed by at least one political party; and,

WHEREAS, Barbara McCandless has become the star witness for sunset committees of the South Dakota Legislature:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the Great State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, March 19, 1979, as in South Dakota, and join with her many friends and relatives in wishing her a day filled with joy and friendship, and further, I urge all prospective members of Boards and Commissions of the Great State of South Dakota to study carefully Barbara McCandless's admonishing "or else" memorandums, as they may well become Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine.

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
